

Library Director/CEO
Lakeland Library Region
North Battleford, Saskatchewan

Posting open until filled – only those selected will be contacted.

Lakeland Library Region is based in the City of North Battleford in the heart of historic Northwest Saskatchewan roughly 130 kilometers west of Saskatoon.

This position offers an exceptional opportunity for a decisive leader who will be responsible for organizing, coordinating and administering programs and operations to a large library region that includes two city libraries and 35 branch libraries. The position of Library Director/CEO requires an experienced librarian, holding a Master's degree in Library Information Studies from an ALA accredited institution.

The successful candidate will report to the Executive and Regional Board and will need to provide strong leadership, have collaborative consensus-building skills, strong administrative abilities and be a team player. The candidate will provide leadership, guidance and direction in the implementation of Board policy and initiatives, library planning, program development and preparation of operating and capital budgets while maintaining a working relationship and ongoing communication with three levels of government. The candidate will have a leadership role in the move to one of the most highly rated provincial wide integrated library software systems currently available.

The new director will be a visionary with business acumen, who can effect change through community needs assessment, effective communication, consensus-building, political astuteness and the ability to work in collaboration with a small management team and staff.

The Battlefords provide many amenities, is close to both northern lakes and dynamic urban environments. The community offers affordable living, good schools, recreational opportunities, music, theatre and much more.
